2021 SUMMER
University Preparation Online Program

Please join us and explore unique graduate education and student services at the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa! We will offer an exciting virtual University Preparation Program this summer for undergraduate students from all UH Mānoa partner schools in China. Designed as a two-week intensive program, the following content will be covered:

Academic English Courses — Improve your English with intensive, active English classes focused on preparation for university work in English, including speaking and listening, grammar and writing. Enhance your learning experience and communication skills by taking small-size classes.

Graduate Degree Program — Connect with the department in your major area of study. Meet the faculty, learn about the graduate programs and their unique features, areas of focus, and research.

Interaction with UH Mānoa Students — Meet with UH Mānoa students as part of the English classes.

Introduction to Hawaiian Culture — Learn about the beautiful and unique art, history, and traditions of Hawai'i.

Resources, Activities, and Services — Learn about a variety of student services, activities, and resources for graduate students at UH Mānoa.
